

Scholarship Application

Scholarships are available to be awarded to Louisiana residents. Scholarships are to be granted solely on merit. Established writers, editors or creative writing teachers at the high school or university level must nominate applicants. Scholarship applicants must submit this form, along with manuscript samples, by September 25th.

The scholarships will be distributed without regard to age, ethnicity, or income levels and are at the discretion of the Faulkner Society. Applicants will be advised no later than November 1.
